Guidelines to publish in IVES Technical Reviews

(in number of characters, including spaces)

Title: maximum 110 characters, including spaces

Introduction (essential information about the article content, summary): maximum 550 characters

Main text (including headings and insets as the case may be): maximum 6 500 characters

Bibliographic references: Maximum 7, APA Style is mandatory:
Name, A. A, Name, B. B, & Name, C. C. (2010). Title of the document. Journal, 21(1), 57 75. https://doi.org/xxxxxxxxxxx

Illustrations: Maximum 3 (or 2+1 summarizing diagram or photo), legends are compulsory (maximum 138 characters), graphs use is recommended. Editable versions must be provided once the article is accepted to facilitate the implementation of the translations (high definition).

Authors: Surname, Name, affiliation and email address.

General comments:

- No company names will be cited nor specific product references unless it is totally essential to the understanding of the technical article (and/or to the purpose of the scientific study).
- However, the mention of the commercial availability of the products cited is essential for the professionals (without giving out the details).
- Pay a particular attention to the illustrations: quality, rights of usage, source document availability.